

It's Like Riding a Bike

The story has many adverbs used in it. Read the story, and highlight the adverbs of manner.

Nathan confidently buckled the strap of his bicycle helmet and quickly pulled on his elbow and knee pads. He was eagerly waiting to try out his new ramp, which he had received for his birthday.

Bella and Christopher, two kids who lived down the street, stood nearby to watch him. Excitement hung in the air.

Nathan climbed
for maximum speed.

PREVIEW

himself on the sidewalk
m. He pedaled fast!

The ramp sat
his back tire followed
the ground.

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

He made the climb, and seconds before hitting

Nathan kept
shouted and clapped

Members, please
log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to
gain complete
access.

Bella and Christopher
ride the jump carefully.

He made the Bella to have a turn.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

and over the bicycle for took her turn.

Christopher went next.

They all made their jumps successfully. Nathan loved his new bicycle ramp. He felt as awesome as the coolest kid in town.

At last, it was time for Bella and Christopher to go home. They promised to return tomorrow for more bike riding. Nathan couldn't wait!