

A Visit to the Horse Farm

by Katie Clark

Today Kendra was visiting Grandpa and Grandma. They owned a horse farm. Kendra was about to take a ride. She stood in the tall grass as she waited for her turn.

The sun shone brightly in the sky. The day was warm, and a soft breeze was blowing.

Grandpa finished leading the horse. "Ready to go?"

Kendra nodded and put one foot in the stirrup. Grandpa gave her a pat on the head.

"This horse is gentle and easy to take."

The pasture was wide and open. Kendra hoped the ride would never end.

"There sure is a lot of grass here. You can take all the time you need," Kendra said with a smile.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

ed one foot in the saddle.

to take."

pace. Kendra hoped back if you're hungry,"

Name : _____

A Visit to the Horse Farm

1) How was the day when Kendra visited the farm?

---

---

2) What was the purpose of Kendra's visit to the farm?

---

---

3) Did Kendra enjoy the visit?

---

---

4) Based on the text, what do you think Kendra's horse was like?

"There sure is a horse here!" Kendra said with a smile. "I can't wait to see you all again!"

...ck if you're hungry,"

!"

---

---

5) What does the phrase "all the time in the world" mean?

---

---

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com