

Name : _____

Summer Heat

by Katie Clark

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

I stepped into

My clothes dri

The walk dow

The swimming

Each step I wa

The pavemen

Downtown m

We cleaned the parks together, and at last the grounds revived.

Our town was looking better, and our work was good, we knew.

At last we could go swimming, and relief could now shine through.

ny belt.

a year.

o miles.

trials.

I arrived.

Name : _____

Summer Heat

- 1) What does the hyperbole in the below sentence mean?
Each step I walked grew longer, and the inches stretched to miles.

- 2) Which element of figurative language is used in the following sentence?
I stepped into the hot sun. My clothes dripped with sweat.
a) internal rhyme
b) end rhyme
c) repetition

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

- 3) The verb "revive" is used in the following sentence:
Write two sentences using the verb "revive" as a transitive verb and two sentences using it as intransitive.
At last the grounds revived.

Name : _____

Summer Heat

- 4) Read the lines and review the underlined part. Write another example.
Our town was looking better, and our work was good, we knew.
At last we could go swimming, and relief could now shine through.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

- 5) Read the line and write another example.
Each step I walk

another example miles.

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com
