First Conditionals

The first conditional talks about things that might happen in the future. To form a first conditional, we use the present simple in the "if/when" clause and the future simple in the other clause.

Example: If you (study) well next year, you (get) good grades.

If you study well next year, you will get good grades.

Use the correct verb tenses to complete each first-conditional sentence.

1) Mom (be) mad if we (be) late again.

_____

2) If it (stop) raining, we (go) to the beach.

_____

3) When Dad (be) back from the trip, we (visit) the museum.

_____

4) If you (not sleep) early today, you (not wake up) early tomorrow.

_____

5) I (take) a taxi to the office tomorrow if it (be) too hot.

_____

6) If we (win) today, we (be) world champions.
