Interjections

An interjection is a word or phrase that is grammatically independent from the words around it. It expresses feeling rather than meaning.

Example: Actually, (um), its not my bike.

Circle the interjection in each sentence.

1) Ouch! You are hurting my foot.

2) Bravo! That was marvelous.

3) Oh, I didn't think about it.

4) Yum! The pasta is delicious.

5) Wow! It's snowing outside.

6) Eek! I stepped on a lizard.

7) Please, can we stop arguing about this now?

8) Well, I did not mean to hurt you, but these are the facts.

9) Holy cow! I forgot to pack my assignment sheets in the bag today.

10) Hoorah! We have bagged the first prize in the dance competition.
