

Prepositional Phrases

When prepositional phrases are used as adjectives, they modify nouns or pronouns.

Example: The little girl with the yellow hat is my friend.

When Nick passed the test, he was over the moon.

Highlight the adjective prepositional phrase in each sentence. Identify the noun/noun phrase being modified by pointing an arrow to it. .

1) The red boots behind the door are Susan's.

2) The bird in the nest

3) The puppy with floppy ears

4) A glass cabin in the forest

5) The young boy in front of the tree

6) Veronica has a dog

7) Our argument over the weekend

8) The movie about penguins was interesting.

9) We watched the long parade of dancers.

10) The geese beside the bush are gagging.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

