

Name : _____

Present Perfect or Present Perfect Progressive?

Present Perfect: It is used to indicate actions or events that occurred at a time that's not specified.

Example: She has visited the town.

Present Perfect Progressive: It is used to refer to actions that started in the past and are still in continuation. It is often used with "since" or "for" to indicate the duration of the actions.

Example: Dan has been watching a movie since afternoon.

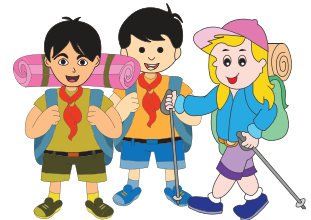

Determine which of the two tenses: present perfect or present perfect progressive, best fits in each sentence.

1) Bethany _____ in the concert three times already. (perform)

2) The salespersons _____ since morning. (work)

3) Ben _____ the book already. (read)

4) We _____ for four hours. (trek)

5) I _____ very well for the exam. (prepare)

6) Maria _____ him after four years. (meet)

7) I _____ in this apartment for three years now. (reside)

8) Mom _____ all day long. (cook)

9) I _____ to Egypt several times. (be)

10) Linda _____ the car keys. (lose)