

Name : _____

Properties of Magnets

Magnets attract objects made of iron, nickel, and cobalt.

Opposite poles of two magnets attract each other.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

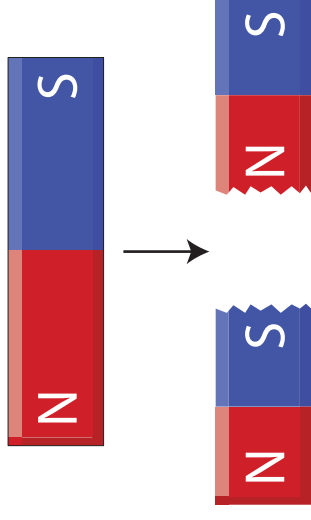

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member? Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com

Like poles of two magnets repel each other.

Poles always exist in pairs. They cannot be separated.

A freely suspended magnet aligns itself in the north-south direction.