

Name : _____

Verb Moods

Identify the option that converts each sentence into the verb mood specified.

- 1) Convert the verb into the imperative mood.

The medicines were kept in a locked cupboard.

- a) Keep the medicines in a locked cupboard.
- b) Do they keep the medicines in a locked cupboard?

- 2) Convert the verb into the imperative mood.

People eat more vegetables.

- a) It's winter.
- b) When do you eat vegetables?

- 3) Convert the verb into the imperative mood.

Do you love track and field?

- a) How many track and field events do you like?
- b) People love track and field.

- 4) Convert the verb into the imperative mood.

Grandpa wears eyeglasses.

- a) Grandpa, please wear eyeglasses whenever you read.
- b) Does Grandpa wear eyeglasses when he reads?

- 5) Convert the verb into the indicative mood.

Did you take the stray dog to an animal shelter?

- a) We took the stray dog to an animal shelter.
- b) Please take the stray dog to an animal shelter.

PREVIEW

Gain complete access to the largest collection of worksheets in all subjects!

Members, please log in to download this worksheet.

Not a member?
Please sign up to gain complete access.

www.mathworksheets4kids.com